

I love you Barcelona

FINE ART COUPLES PHOTOGRAPHY

The Call Sheet

Everything decided so far about the brand, the offer, and where it goes next — written down so it doesn't have to live in your head alone.

ACT I The Story

You're not a photo studio. You're a couple, photographing couples — which is why the work doesn't look staged. Two working artists, Nuria Alférez and Miguel Manzano, merged their personal visual languages into one brand, built around direction and styling instead of a snapshot in front of a landmark.

That's the whole positioning: Barcelona has no shortage of couple photographers. It has almost none who direct, style, and treat a 90-minute session like a short film.

GENERIC BCN SESSIONS		€250–450
I LOVE YOU BARCELONA		€400–650
FULL WEDDING COVERAGE		€2,000–6,500

Sits clearly above the generic tourist-photo floor, well below wedding-tier — the boutique bracket, priced for direction and artistry rather than volume.

ACT II The Voice

Romantic, never meloso. Real couples, real connection — strong and a little unfiltered, not a greeting card.

USE

- story, chapter, real, direction
- styled, cinematic, connection
- short, dialogue-style lines

AVOID

- "perfect," generic romance clichés
- anything that reads staged or corporate
- long descriptive paragraphs — nobody stops to read them

— I love you.

— I love you too.

CARD BACK · THE BRAND'S SIGNATURE DEVICE

Every chapter gets its own two-line exchange instead of a paragraph of copy — the same device that's already on the printed card.

ACT III The Offer

Three chapters, three moods. Same care, same attention, regardless of which one is booked.

Love & The City

Barcelona city locations
1.5 hours · 15–20 edited
photos

€400

“Stay a little longer.”
“I wasn't planning on leaving.”

Wild At Heart

Nature, coast, or mountains
2 hours · 20–25 edited
photos

€550

“Where are we going?”
“Wherever the light takes us.”

In The Mood For Love

Choice of location
2 hours · 15–20 curated
photos

€650

“Don't look at the camera.”
“I wasn't.”

No repeat-session guarantee — confidence in the work covers that. Reassurance instead comes from weather rescheduling and full privacy on Chapter III: nothing is ever shared without permission.

ACT IV Where We're Found

One brand, tiered by channel — the full story lives on the site; marketplaces get the easy entry point.

OWN SITE

www.iloveyoubcn.com — primary channel.

GOOGLE SEARCH

Chosen deliberately over Instagram as the main discovery engine — doesn't depend on an algorithm you don't control.

AIRBNB / VIATOR

One simplified listing only (Love & The City equivalent), capped at 0–1 booking/month while capacity stays limited.

PRICE TBD

PRINT / LOCAL

Card design approved and going to print.

DISTRIBUTION METHOD TBD

ACT V The Schedule

Scarcity here isn't a marketing trick — it's the real shooting calendar. Worth saying so, out loud, on the site.

1–3

sessions / month, today —
Tuesdays only

4–8

sessions / month, once scaled

Goal: supplemental income
first, not full-time yet

ACT VI The Roadmap

Where the business is right now, and what comes after.

- Phase 1 — Foundation (now)

copywriting · offers · schema / site-architecture

- Phase 2 — Soft Launch

launch · public-relations · co-marketing

- Phase 3 — First Bookings

social · customer-research · referrals

- Phase 4 — Scale

analytics · cro / ab-testing · emails

CONTINUITY Open Notes

Loose threads — nothing here blocks moving forward, just things to close out.

- Marketplace listing price not yet set — needs its own number, separate from direct-site pricing.
- Card distribution method undecided — street-cast, discount code, or hotel/planner partners.
- Customer language not yet gathered — capture it from the first completed portfolio sessions.
- Model release / consent process for Chapter III should be formalized before the first booking.
